TERMS, ONE DOLLAR PER YEAR

Volume VIII.

FRANKFORT, KY., APRIL 11, 1885.

Number 30

The following is a copy of the order made in the South Benson Baptist Church case when the same was dismissed:

FRANKLIN CIRCUIT COURT.
Jno. Jenkins, &c., Plff's }
vs. } Agreed Order.
J. D. Parent, &c., Dft's. }

This day came the parties by their attorneys, and the plaintiff dismiss their action herein—conditioned as follows:
Then came the defendants and offered and tendered to plaintiffs the use of South Benson Church building for a Saturday and Sunday in each month, to be fixed and agreed upon by a committee of three from each Church, and thereupon the plaintiffs, in all kindness and good feeling and courtesy, decline the proffer of the use of the church building; and thereupon the defendants, by the consent of plaintiffs, agreed that they would pay one half of the taxable cost of this action.

Jno. & J. W. RODMAN, Atty. Plff's.
A. DUVALL & D. W. LINDSEY, Atty's Dft's.

Editor Roundabout:

The Democratic Committee has selected May 2d, 1885, as the time for holding a primary election to nominate a Democratic candidate for the Legislature. A nomination at this time is equivalent to an election, and it behooves all the people of Franklin county to select a good business man for the place, in order that all her interests will receive proper attention. Robt. C. Church is a candidate soliciting the suffrages of the Democrats in this election. He needs no introduction to the people of Franklin county. He is a careful business man, successful in all the undertakings of life, intelligent, temperate and reliable, thoroughly practical, always painstaking and polite, he will make a good representative. He was born and raised in the county, and is now serving his third or fourth term in the City Council, having been honored the last time by a handsome majority. Mr. Church nearly represents the wants, tastes and interests of the industrious people as any man in Kentucky, and by virtue of his splendid record as a successful business man and member of Council is entitled to the warm support and confidence of any Democrat in the county. They will all put together and give the gentleman a rousing majority. ***

Belle Point.

Mrs. S. V. Pence returned home from Gratz Wednesday.

Mr. Jas. D. Moore will make 100 tobacco hhd's this spring.

Mr. Geo. Shackelford and family have moved to Winchester.

Mr. Chas. P. Nichols is visiting in Madison, Indiana, this week.

Messrs. Charlie and Logan McKee went to Bridgeport Wednesday.

General Jas. P. Pence has been quite sick for a week or more. He is some better now.

The foundation for the new School House and Chapel will be completed in a short time.

Mr. Wm. Roberts and family, have moved into the house formerly occupied by Mr. A. G. Robinson near the Round House on railroad.

Who owns this end of the Flat Creek Turnpike road from the far end of Belle Point to the railroad. The county say they gave it away several years ago. Who for? Belle Point did not ask for it, and don't want it, and cannot afford to keep it in repair.

Will some of the members or the Chairman of the Democratic County Committee please explain why this side of the River was ignored when they were appointing the officers of the Gas House precinct to conduct the primary election to be held on Saturday, May 2. We have always been represented before. Why not now? as the majority of the Democratic voters of that precinct live on this side of the river. Then why did not they order the polls open at 8 o'clock instead of 8 o'clock, so the working men could have a chance to vote before going to work. Gentlemen treat us fairly.

Bridgeport.

The wheat prospect still brightens. Singing-to-night at J. W. Jenkins'. Come all.

tracted illness as to be able to be out again.

No new cases of matrimony to report this week.

Little Nellie Kirk is quite ill with diphtheria.

Mrs. Evie Sanders is quite sick with pneumonia.

A business boom in this section seems to be inevitable. Let her come.

Wanted, a few more candidates, and then we'll have one for each voter.

Mr. William Crutcher had 25 or 30 sheep and lambs killed by dogs last week.

The bill poster of W. W. Cole's circus was in our town last Tuesday, much to the delight of the juveniles.

We report the general health of this community as perhaps better than at any time during the past year.

Mrs. Ann Russell and family have returned to their farm for the summer from their winter residence in Frankfort.

The wonderful revival of religion in progress at the Baptist Church in Frankfort is a source of great rejoicing amongst the followers of Christ in this section.

Farmers in this section—a majority at least—failed to attend Court last Monday. It being a beautiful day, deemed it the better part of valor to stay at home and work.

Sunday-School was organized at Franklin Church last Sunday, with C. H. Parent Superintendent, A. B. Read, sr., assistant Superintendent and J. W. Jenkins Sec'y and Treas.

The fishing season having commenced, those who have the time and inclination are taking advantage of the beautiful weather this week to engage in this business. Some very fine fish for this creek, little Benson have already been taken.

Now that we have a prospect of a business revival in our vicinity, we again call the attention of the General Superintendent to the fact that a telephonic connection is very much needed at this place. We are confident the interest of the company would be very materially advanced financially.

A Bovine Freak.

Dame Nature, with all her proverbial skill and wisdom, gets off the track occasionally and either adds to or subtracts some portion of her manufactured article. One of the strangest freaks of the kind on exhibition is a living cow, having two distinct and separate heads, fully developed in every particular, with two sets of horns, two pair of eyes, two pairs of ears and two mouths. The animal is otherwise in a normal condition, healthy and sound. Mr. W. W. Cole has secured her as an added attraction to his colossal shows for this season, and visitors will have an opportunity to see one of Nature's most singular mistakes.

A Big Elephant Holiday.

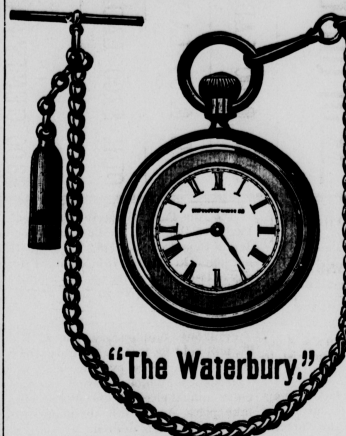

For many years elephants have played a prominent part in the Circus world. There have been big elephants and baby elephants, but W. W. Cole still maintains his position at the front as the owner of Samson, the largest Asiatic elephant known to be in captivity, which, with the herd accompanying him of the most intelligent specimens of their kind ever imported, form a salient feature of W. W. Cole's New Colossal Shows, which besides contains almost everything that curious humanity cares to see. The circus is so large that it takes several rings and an elevated stage to give all the performers an opportunity to display their accomplishments, and the only fact to be found with this truly enormous show is that it is too big. At every performance sixty distinct acts are given, combining the Circus, Menagerie, Theatre, Roller Skating Rink, Gallery of Wax Statuary, Mexico and the Mexicans, the Living Two-Headed Cow and other distinctive features all in one pleasing and harmonious exhibition. Performances are given in the Menagerie tents as well as in the Circus rings. The troupe of real Bedouin Arabs are a pronounced novelty, as are also the Human Fly, or aerial ceiling walker, the aerial Bicyclists, the artistic and grotesque Roller Skaters, the Roman Gladiators, wrestlers, leapers, gymnasts and rival bareback riders, all of whom enter into spirited competition for supremacy. All kinds of trained animals are introduced and performed, among them that rarest of animals, the white hippopotamus, a two-horned rhinoceros, and the wonderful horse Blondin, in his tight-rope act. A side splitting act is that performed by the educated racing pig, ridden by a monkey jockey, who "makes nice of no vile hold" when there is a possibility of the Darwinian Dude's losing his balance or being "unhorsed." Take the show all in all, it presents such an array of novelties as to justify entitle it to the title of a "Big Elephant Holiday." The day of exhibition in Frankfort is set for Tuesday May, 5, when every feature above named, and many that space will not permit us to enumerate, will be presented, furnishing a feast of amusement outranking any three shows that heretofore existed.

What a Mississippi Pilot Says.

Capt. D. M. Elger, who is well known at New Orleans and along the Mississippi river, says, "I have been suffering from dyspepsia for the past five years, and from broken rest, by severe pains in the bowels and kidneys. I tried every medicine recommended for these diseases, without success. At last I used a bottle of Brown's Iron Bitters, which proved a perfect success in my case." It cures all liver, kidney and malarial diseases.

A WATERBURY WATCH AND CHAIN!
GIVEN AWAY WITH EVERY CASH SALE OF $15.00 AND OVER.

WHY WE DO IT.
The season has been late, prices in the East have been depressed, and we went into the market late with CASH IN HAND, and bought goods at prices that were unknown in the history of the trade. We have bought a mammoth stock of Boots, Shoes, Clothing, Hats, &c., and we offer this Watch and Chain as a premium for each trade. None but THE CASH BUYERS will get the Watch. Our prices we guarantee are lower than the same goods can be bought elsewhere. The most of our goods were in the house and marked in plain figures before we thought of the WATERBURY, and consequently we can not charge you one cent more for the goods.

FRANKFORT ROUNDABOUT.

Entered at the post-office at Frankfort, Kentucky as second class mailable matter.

GEORGE A. LEWIS.
Editor and Publisher.

FRANKFORT, APRIL 11, 1885.

An effort is being made to get Major Whittle, the celebrated evangelist, to come here and hold a meeting.

Mr. John B. Dryden has been appointed night watchman and Harry Bacon day watchman at the Government building.

Mr. M. Nichols has purchased from the Berryman heirs the lot on Holmes street, adjoining the residence of Mr. John Crumbaugh.

If you have not secured your early tomato, cabbage and cauliflower plants go and see Charley Saffell at the Post Office and have him save what you want.

The new base ball grounds, Capital Park, on Holmes street, are being inclosed with a close plank fence ten feet high, and will soon be ready for the ball tossers.

All the friends of base ball, who wish to aid the managers in sustaining a first-class club in this city, should go to the Opera House to-night, and induce their friends to do likewise. This is a first class company and well worth seeing.

We have had any quantity of street amusement this week, between the Shamrock Oil gang and the traveling notion store, and on Wednesday a domesticated Cow Boy kind of an individual was posting bills announcing that we are to have next week Dr. Lighthall, the Indian doctor and lightning tooth puller.

A large crowd was in town Monday attending County Court, and between the auctioneers, Shamrock Oil men, notion sellers, and fruit dealers things were kept pretty lively all morning, and in the afternoon the horse show was the principal attraction. A number of fine stallions were exhibited, among them Mr. Steve Black's fine young horse Pretender. Sales on the street were lively and quite a number of cattle and horses were disposed of. The horse swappers were too busy listening to the songs of the Shamrock oil men and notion sellers to attend to business.

Mr. Samuel White, at one time employed at the Yeoman office, but for the last 19 years foreman of the Lexington Gazette office, committed suicide Sunday by shooting himself in the head. Ill health was supposed to be the cause. Col. H. H. Gratz, his employer was absent in St. Louis at the time, but returned home Tuesday. On his way up from Louisville he remarked that in the nineteen years Mr. White had been with him this was the only wrong thing he had ever known him to do, that he lost but a half day's time from his work in 17 years, and could always attend to the business of the office as well as himself. The life of the deceased was insured for $8,000.

Mrs. Ann Parr, formerly Mrs. Jas. Page, of this city, mother of Major James R. and Mr. J. Cliff. Page, died her home in Olney, Illinois, on Friday last week. Her many friends in this city will regret to hear of her death.

Frankfort Commandery, No. 4, K. T., will hold its regular monthly convocation on Thursday evening next, at 7 o'clock, on which occasion the regular annual election of officers will take place, and a full attendance of the Sir Knights is desired.

As the District Democratic Committee has called a convention to meet at Lawrenceburg on the first day of May to nominate a candidate for Senator, and the Franklin County Committee has directed a primary election to be held on the 24 of May to decide who will be Franklin's candidate, the Franklin man seems to be liable to get there a day behind time.

The meeting at the Baptist Church, which has been in progress for the past five weeks, was closed Wednesday evening. The result of the meeting was one hundred and twenty-one additions to the Church. A debt of $3,500 which has been hanging over the Church for some time has been liquidated, and the congregation is stronger and in better working condition than ever before.

Mrs. Julia R. Smith, wife of Dr. S. F. Smith, editor of the Truthful Witness, died Monday morning at eleven o'clock, after a brief illness, aged 42 years. She was a consistent member of the Christian Church, an excellent lady, and her death is a great blow to her devoted husband and children, who have the deep sympathy of the entire community. The funeral took place Tuesday morning from the residence of her husband and, as she requested, the ceremony was very brief and simple. She leaves three children, the youngest an infant a few weeks old.

Mr. Reuben Runyan, for many years a prominent business man of this city, died at his home on Ann street, Tuesday morning, after an illness of several months, aged 71 years. He was a native of this city, having been born March, 1814, and was one of the oldest inhabitants. In 1819 he moved to Boone county with his parents, but returned here about 1844, and went into the dry goods business with Mr. David Meriwether on Broadway. The firm was afterwards dissolved, when he removed to St. Clair street and continued the business. He afterwards removed to the room on Main street at present occupied by the Adams Express Co. He was an honest, upright gentleman, and a consistent member and office bearer in the Methodist Church for many years, and his funeral took place from that Church on Wednesday, the services being conducted by Rev. E. L. Southgate, of Shelbyville, assisted by Rev. G. C. Kelly, the pastor. He leaves a widow and three children to mourn his loss, who have the deep sympathy of a large circle of friends.

Philip Phillips, the singing pilgrim, whose reputation as a sweet singer, is world wide, and his son will appear at the Opera House on Monday and Tuesday evenings. In addition to the splendid vocal music beautiful views from a fine photo-opticon will also be given.

Personal.

Dr. J. G. Hatchitt is quite sick.
Mr. D. A. Adams, of Georgetown, was in the city Monday.

Mrs. Belle Shannon, of Indiana, is visiting relatives in this city.

Mr. Lee C. Woodson, of Kansas City, Mo., is visiting relatives in this city.

Mrs. Frank K. Rodman, of Cincinnati, is visiting relatives in this city.

Miss Pattie Moore, of Winchester, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Chas. F. Exum, in this city.

Miss Alice Hickey, of Louisville, who has been visiting friends in this city, returned home Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. Robt. M. Aldrich and wife left Thursday morning for a visit to relatives in Alabama, New Orleans and Texas.

Mr. F. H. Bagby, who has been on a visit of several days to the New Orleans Exposition, returned home Tuesday evening.

BORN.

In this city, on Monday, April 6th, 1885, to Mr. David Nicol and wife, a daughter—MARY TODD.

In this county, on Friday, April 3d, 1885, to Mr. Albert Rodgers and wife, twins—a son and daughter.

MARRIED.

In Lexington, on Thursday, April 9th, 1885, Mr. S. E. Maxon, of Monroe, Louisiana, and Miss Phinola Green.

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS
THE BEST TONIC.

This medicine, combining iron with pure vegetable tonics, quickly and completely cures Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Weakness, Lassitude, Blood, Malarial, Chills and Fevers, and Nervousness. It is the most powerful remedy for Diseases of the Kidneys and Liver. It is invaluable for Diseases peculiar to Women, and all who lead sedentary lives. It does not injure the teeth, cause headache or produce constipation—other iron medicines do. It enriches and purifies the blood, stimulates the appetite, aids the assimilation of food, relieves heartburn and belching, and strengthens the muscular system. For Intermittent Fevers, Languor, Lack of Energy, etc., it has no equal. Beware! The genuine has above trade mark and is enclosed red line on wrapper. Take no other. Made only by BROWN'S CHEMICAL CO., BALTIMORE, MD.

FRANKFORT ROUNDABOUT.

FRANKFORT, APRIL 11, 1885.

Rev. J. McC. Blayney, D. D., will preach at the Chapel in Leestown tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock. All are invited to attend.

Mr. Frank Gobber, grocery merchant on Washington street, died Wednesday, after a lingering illness with liver complaint.

Major J. Alex. Grant is an applicant for the appointment of Consul at some foreign port. He does not specify the point to which he wishes to be sent.

The Democratic primary election to select candidates for Senator from this district and Representative from this county in the next Legislature have been ordered by the County Committee to be held on Saturday, May 2.

The Carleton Opera Company will return here on Friday and Saturday, April 17th and 18th, and will render two splendid operas. The price of reserved seats will be for one night $1.00, for both nights $1.50. Seats can be secured at once at Barrett's.

The contract with the water company gives to the city two public fountains and we learn that the one in Capital square will be re-erected in a short time after the works are in operation. Now for the other—would it not be a good plan for the city to purchase the Kentucky Eclectic Institute property, now owned by Mrs. Gaines and occupied by Mal. Stanton, and convert it into a city park? This is about the only place purchasable for such a purpose, and it is something that no one will object to. It contains six or seven acres of land, is admirably adapted for a beautiful park. On the river front the grounds are rolling, and are adorned by several magnificent elms—“C” in Yeoman.

A good suggestion, and we second the motion. Nothing adds so much to the beauty of a city or the enjoyment of her citizens as a public park. Let us have one by all means.

To-night the Madame Fry Concert Company, of Boston, will give one of their elegant entertainments at the Opera House, for the benefit of the Frankfort Base Ball Club. In speaking of this company the Boston Times has this to say:

 Madame Fry and daughters, assisted by the celebrated artists Mr. J. A. Sterling, cornetist, and Mr. A. J. Wells (late of Wood's Cathedral, England), pianist, gave one of their Grand Concerts last night. The success of the artists called forth enthusiastic applause, and double and triple recalls were made after certain pieces. Special praise should be given to the rendering of the “Ave Maria,” by Madame Fry, “The Dove,” by Miss Eugene, the “Children's Kingdom,” by Miss Lulu; the violin solo, by Miss Alta, and the quartette of horns, by Madame and daughters, was simply wonderful.—Boston Times.

And Dr. Eben Tourjee director of the New England Conservatory of Music Boston, writes:

“The Madame Fry Concert Company is composed of ladies and gentlemen of unusual musical talent and I cheerfully commend these to the public.”

Reserved seats at Barrett's, 75 cents.

Mr. Dan. Sheeting is erecting a neat frame cottage on Logan street.

Rev. Robt. E. Caldwell will preach at the Franklin Church Sunday afternoon, April 19th, at 3 o'clock.

Owing to a press of advertising matter we are compelled to leave over to next week several communications.

Mr. Darsie occupies his pulpit at the Christian Church to-morrow morning and night as usual. Subject of the night discourse, Jesus the Great Helper.

A countryman, unloading some wood in front of Sower & Ahler's Thursday, threw a stick of wood through one of the large plate glass show windows. The load of wood was worth $1.50 and the glass $100.

WANTED.—To borrow $400 on real estate worth $1,400, will pay 10 per cent. interest. Inquire at this office.

Antioch.

Miss Edna Chambers left for Louisville last Monday morning.

There will be preaching at Antioch to-morrow, by Elder Polk South, when it will be determined when the Sunday-school will be organized.

Mrs. Kate Shackelford of Belle Point after spending several days with her father's family, left for her future home in Winchester, Clark county, last Wednesday.

We give a special invitation to all the candidates for the Legislature to meet with the teachers next Saturday and give their views on the common school system. Let us hear from you, gentle, or you may hear from us.

The Franklin County Teachers Association will meet in regular session in the City School building in Frankfort on the 3d Saturday in this month at 10 a. m. We hope that every teacher and friend of education in the county will feel it their duty to meet with us. Let us now organize for the summer's campaign. “In union there is strength.”

We have been asked to warn the young ladies of this neighborhood of a certain young gent who is in the habit of borrowing dogs, hunderchiefs, etc., of some and giving them to other young ladies. We hardly think he means any harm by it, but it is very annoying to some of the young ladies who have lost their rings, etc., by such conduct. A word to the wise is sufficient.

PIANOS AND ORGANS!---EASY TERMS!

In buying a Piano or Organ many persons have the idea that they must pay all cash. There are thousands of families who have an income of fifty to one hundred dollars per month, who can easily spare from five to ten dollars of it and scarcely miss it. To all such we would say, do not wait to lay up enough to pay for an instrument before buying, but see or write us at once for our terms. We will satisfy you that we are giving easier terms than any Music House in the United States.

GENERAL GRANT.

Is the Old Hero Dying Because of Medical Inolerance.

The American Homoeopathist has an article on the treatment of General Grant by the Allopaths, in which it says:

"General Washington was murdered by his medical attendants; but at least they were heretically—too heretically endeavoring to extinguish the disease. Their brutality was of the active sort and in purpose commendable, though disastrous in result. Gen. Grant was maltreated for months under an error of diagnosis, and at last escaped beyond the reach of his enemy torturers. Here also, there was much medical heroism and activity displayed, albeit misdirected. Other illustrious patients have suffered from eminence in the profession; but Gen. Grant seems reserved as a shining example of cold-blooded expectancy. To him the little group of eminence have nothing to offer but a diagnosis. For him they propose no relief but in the grave. Ignoring the only source of therapeutic salvation, they gather round his bedside to observe his unaided struggle. The fact has gone forth that nothing can be done; and nothing will be permitted to be done. Those who question such decisions are quick and cruel; but who ought not to be proud of such a designation from such a source? Scholarly, refined, cultured, earnest gentlemen as they are, of what avail are all these good qualities in the presence of such therapeutic bankruptcy? On the contrary, while so-called scientific medicine is to the fore, well may the daily papers announce in startling headlines, 'A bad day for General Grant—Seven doctors in consultation.'"

Yes, the hero of Appomattox is dying! He who knew no fear in war, knew no fear in suffering. His quiet fortitude wins universal admiration. President Lincoln, in visiting a hospital during the late war, noticed a poor Confederate boy, mortally wounded. With his native tenderness he put his arms around his neck in sympathy. The sight melted the hospital to tears.

The heart of American people in like manner bleeds for General Grant, silent sufferer. It would have him get well, by any effective means.

His physicians say he cannot recover. They fill him with anodynes, but despite their fatal bulletins he is daily growing worse.

A specialist who has won reputation in the treatment of cancer visits his bedside. The oncologist, when he comes from the attending physicians brings painfully to mind the story of the dog in the manger.

And General Grant, perhaps, most die because of this intolerance. Is it possible that there is no hope of cure outside of medical profession?

Preposterous!

For years medical men insisted that fevers were incurable, but Chinquin proved the contrary. For centuries they have protested that certain renal disorders were incurable, and yet a special preparation has cured and permanently cured the very worst cases.

Why may it not be possible in like manner to cure a case of cancer? B. F. Larabee, of Boston, was doomed to death by many eminent Boston physicians. J. B. Henion, M. D., of Rochester, N. Y., was given up by the best doctors of all schools. Elder J. S. Prescott, of Cleveland, Ohio, was gravely informed by them that he could not live, but when he consumed a thousand like them, have been cured and cured permanently, of serious kidney disorders, by a remedy not generally known to the code.

What has been done may be done again.

General Anson Stager died of Bright's disease in Chicago last week. "Joe" Goss, the Boston pugilist, died of it. Hundreds of thousands of people perish of it every year, while in their doctor's hands. The cause of death may be called blood poisoning, paralysis, heart disease, convulsions, apoplexy, pneumonia, or some other common ailment, but the real difficulty is in the kidneys. Physicians know it but they conceal the fact from their patients, realizing their inability to cure by any "authorized" means. The remedy that cured Larabee, Henion and Prescott (i. e., Warner's safe cure) is a special, independent discovery. Its record entitles it to recognition, and it gets it from intelligent people. Its manufacturers have an unusual reputation and are entitled to as great consideration as any school of physicians.

Professor E. A. Gunn, M. D., Dean of the United States Medical College of New York City, rises above professional prejudice and on its personally proved merits alone gives it several pages of the warmest commendation in his published works—the only instance on record of a high professional endorsement of such a preparation. The unprejudiced people do not want General Grant to die. If there is in all nature or anywhere in the world a remedy or a man able to cure his cancer, give them a chance.

Will they do it?

No.

Why?

Is it not too often the case that many excellent physicians, who are greatly devoted to the code, would prefer that their patients should die rather than that they should recover health by the use of any remedy not recognized under their code?

Delicate Women.

I have been using for a month or two in my household Swift's Specific, the greater portion of it having been devoted to the female portion of my family, and with the happiest results. It acted like a charm, on my wife, who had been in bad health for a long time, and for whom I had paid hundreds of dollars for doctors and medicines. It began to build her up from the first dose. Another female member of my family took it with equally satisfactory results. It is certainly the best tonic for delicate ladies I have ever used, and I have tried them all. I have no doubt that it will, of course, do much for the poorly ventilated houses, sewer gas poison and malarial poison often produce sickness among our wives, daughters and sisters, and I believe Swift's Specific is the remedy for all this sort of blood poisoning. I know many of the best families of this country are using it for this purpose, and I have never known or heard of any failure to give entire satisfaction. I have known the remedy a long time, and I know it to be entirely vegetable, and the best tonic and alterative, especially for females.

F. L. JONES, J. P., Quitman, Ga.

General Debility.

For several years past my wife's health has been exceedingly feeble—a general breakdown down of the nervous system. She was greatly reduced in flesh. No remedy seemed to do her any good. In the spring of 1888 I induced her to try Swift's Specific. The first bottle gave her hope and twenty bottles produced wonderful results. She gained thirty pounds in flesh and it renovated her whole system. It is certainly the greatest tonic in the world.
